And fresh is the breath of Spring. Cheerful and bright looks the soft young moss, 1 f When languid the sick one's eye; Merry's the song of the early lark,

So bravely he chaunts on high! Proudly and firmly the mighty oak Stands, tossing its branches wide; Gracefully swell the ship's snowy sails, When riding before the tide.

Joyfully falls the sweet voice of song, Extracting from life its care; Pleasant it is in a blighted world, To find forms of beauty rare! Touching's the violet's modesty,

From vulgar gaze which doth hide; Charming the blushes of purity Which glow on the cheek of the bride! Fair though these forms, he'd far rather find

Whose feet foreign lands do press-One living glance of that sympathy, Which springs from a loving breast! Sweet though these gifts, the poor wanderer Returned to his father land;

Sooner would find hearts which throb for him True hearts-and a faithful hand! Higher than all does the weary prize-With aliens who found no rest-One leaping heart which his heart does greet,

The welcome of one warm breast !

WHAT WILL TAKE THE SCENT OUT OF CLOTHING.—Sitting on the piazza of the Cataract, was a young, foppish-looking gentlemen, his garments very highly scented with a mingled odor of musk and cologne. A solemn-faced, odd-looking man, after passing the dandy several times, with a look of aversion which drew general notice, suddenly stopped, and in a confidential tone said: "Stranger, I know what'll take that scent out of your clothes; you-"

"What! what do you mean, sir?" said the exquisite, "fired with indignation," starting from his chair. "Oh, get mad, now; swear, pitch, and the dandy very sensibly "cleared the coop" and vanished up stairs.

RUSSIAN STOICISM.—At the attack on Petropolowska, the Russians are said to have fought with unflinching courage. An example is given of a Russian sentinel, against whom upwards of sixty rifle shots were aimed, but nothing could overcome his stoicism, and he continued to pace up and down the remnents of the to pace up and down the ramparts of the or pace up and down the ramparts of the ort in which he was stationed, without urning his head either to the left or ight. "It's my nose, ain't it? and it's Fourth of all the natural appetites, as well as the higher mental attributes. Its beneficial effects are not con fined to either sax or to any age. To those who have a predisposition to paralysis it will prove a complete and unfailing safeguard against that terrible malady. There are many, perhaps, who have so trifled with their constitutions, that they think themselves beyond the reach of medicine. Let not even these despair. The Elixir deals with disease as it exists, without reference to causes, and will not only remove the disorder itself, but REBUILD THE BROKEN CONSTITUTION. The derangements of the system, leading to ner yous diseases, and the forms of nervous disease it self, are so numerous that it would require a column to enumerate the maladies for which this prepararation is a specific. A few, however, may be enumerated, viz: neuralgia, tic dolereaux, headache, incipient paralysis, hysteria, palpitation of the heart, spinal affections, muscular debility, tremers, flatulence, a pricking sensation in the flesh, numbness, tarpidity of the liver, mental depression, weakness of the will, indisposition to move, faintness after exercise, broken sleep an I terrifying dreams, inability to remain in one place or position, weakness of the procreative organs, sexual incompetency, melancholy, monomania, fluor albus, anking at the stomach, female irregularities as observed. male irregularities, a chronic tendency to miscarriage, emaciation, and all complaints growing out of a free indulgence of the passions, and all barrenness that does not proseed from organic causes beyond the reach of medicine.

Whenever the organs to be acted upon are free from malformation or strictural diseases it is averred MORSE'S INVICORATING ELIXER will replace weakness with strength, incapacity with efficiency, irregularity with uniform and natural activity, and this not only without hazard of reaction, but with a happy effect on the general organization.

Bear in mind that all maladies, wherever they begin, finish with the nervous system, and that the paralization of the nerves or motion and sensation is physical death. Bear in mind also, that for every kind of nervous disease the Elizer Cordial is the only reliable preparation known.

DISEASES ARISING FROM THE IMPURIT OF THE BLOOD. Prepared by J. L. KIDWELL, Chemist, George town, D. C.

The estimate that is now accorded this preparation by the medical profession and by others competent to judge of its merits, may be seen in the fact that it has been prescribed by many of our most eminent Physicians in this country, and has attracted the attention of a celebrated profession of the Edinburg College, Scotland, by whom it has been successfully used in a career of an aggravated character.

VINCENNES, INDIANA, Oct. 3, 1854. J. L. Kidwell-Dear Sir: Some three months ago, through the agency of Gol Smith Miller, our representation in Congress, I had purchased of you, for the use of my father in Scotland, one dozen Bottles of Beech Drop or Cancer Preparation. I have a let-ter from my brother, stating that the physician de-sires you to forward another dozen bottles. He add that my father has tried every physician of dis-tinction in Scotland and England, including Profes-sors of Edinburg and Collleges, without relief. The disease was of three years standing, began in the right cheek, which is partially consumed. He was a sufferer with constant pain, which has entirely

CALLAWAY COUNTY, MISSOURI, July 13th, 1854. Dear Sir-With great pleasure I inform that your preparation of Beech Drop has accomplished for me what I thought beyond the reach of human agency. So extensive was the ulcers and so horrible my appearance that my case became notorious with all the Faculty in this and the adjoining counties—in fact I had obtained the best medical aid in our State, without any abate ment of the disease. Through a friend I procured a half dozen bottles of your Beech Drep, after using it, so perfect was the cure, that hundreds visited me. My desire is to benefit my fellow man; with that purpose I beg all afflicted with Scrofula in any form

Enclosed you will find an order from some friends for the preparation. Very truly,
